

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, May 31. 1705.

From the Amst. & Leid. Gazettes, dated May 26.

Vienna, May 13.

THE 6th of this Month the Body of the decess'd Emperor Leopold, the 1st of that Name, was open'd and embalm'd. His Heart was put in a silver Box, and carried with fit Ceremony to the Chappel of Loretto behind the high Altar in the Church of the barefooted Augustins, where it was deposited. His Bowels were likewise put into a Box of Silver, and with like Ceremony carried to the Cathedral Church of St. Stephen and there interr'd. And his Body having lain 3 Days on a Bed of State in the great Hall of the Imperial Palace, was carried the 9th at Night to the Church of the Capuchins, in the following Manner, the Bells of all the Churches of this City and its Suburbs tolling. First, it was carried along the Gallery of Communication from the Palace to the Imperial Chappel in the Church of the barefooted Augustins, by 12 Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber; and thence to the Church of the Capuchins by 24 other Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber, Senior to the former, assisted by 12 Grooms of the Chamber. The Streets were illuminated with Flambeaux. The Poor of the Hospitals of the City and Suburbs, began the Funeral March, carrying each a lighted Taper of white Wax. Then came all the Religious Orders, viz. the barefooted Fathers of the Trinity instituted for the Redemption of Captives, the Carmelites, the Servites, the Minims, the Franciscans of St. Jerom, the Dominicans, the Ecclesiasticks of the Hospitals Borghese, the Augustin Regular Canons of the Church of St. Dorothy, the Benedictins call'd Scozzesi, the Recollers, the Barnabites of St. Michael, the barefooted Augustins, and the Caduchins. After them came the Servants and Officers of the Household, the Magistrates of this City, the Estates of Austria, the Chamberlains wearing the golden Key (or Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber) each carrying a lighted Taper; then the Counselors of State, the Knights of the golden Fleece wearing the great Collar of their Order, the Imperial Musick, the Chapter of the Cathedral of St. Stephen, 12 Prelates in their Pontifical Habits, the Rector Magnificus and the 4 Deans of our University. The Prince our Bishop, in his Pontifical Habit, immediately preceded the Corpse: The Coffin was cover'd with a Cloth of Gold and Black: And on it towards the Head, were plac'd the Imperial Crown, Globe, and Scepter, and the golden Fleece; on the Middle a Crucifix; and lower the Crowns of Hungary and Bohemia. The chief Imperial and Royal Ministers walk'd on each Side the Corpse. Cardinal Collonitz and the Ambassador of Venice follow'd. Then came the new Emperor Joseph I. the Empress, and the 3 Arch-Duchesses his Sisters, follow'd by all the Ladies of the Court and a great Number of other Persons of Quality. All in deep Mourning, the Ecclesiasticks excepted. The Life-Guards and the Soldiers of our Garrison, lind the Streets, having at their Head the Marquis d'Obizzi, Governour of this City and Major General of his Imperial Majesty's Armies, their Arms revers'd in the Funeral Posture, the Drums cover'd with black Cloath and beating a dead March. The Church of the Capuchins not being capacious enough to hold so many People, only the Court, the principal Persons of Quality, and the secular Clergy, entred with the Body: Which with the usual Ceremonies was deposited in the Imperial Monument of the House of Austria: which done, at 11 a Clock at Night, their Imperial Majesties return'd to the Court.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 29.

Vienna, May 16. A sumptuous Mausoleum is erecting in the Church of the barefooted Augustins, where the Obsequies of the decess'd Emperor Leopold are to be solemniz'd with all imaginable Pomp. In the Mean Time 2 Imperial Edicts have been publish'd, one forbidding all manner of Plays, Shows, Entertainments of Musick, Dancing, &c. publick or private, during one Year: The other forbidding those who deal in black Cloath or any other things us'd for Mourning, to take Advantage of the present Occasion to sell them at exorbitant Prices.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 26.

Ratisbon, May 18. The College of Electors have resolv'd to put themselves in Mourning for the Dearth of the Emperor Leopold; in which 'tis presum'd they will be follow'd by the other Colleges. The Elector Palatine has caus'd the following Offers to be made to the Deputies of the King of Prussia: I. To grant to all his Subjects that are of the re-form'd Religion, entire Liberty of Conscience. II. To allow them their Synod, with the same Rights as formerly: and to suffer that Synod to take Cognizance of all Affairs relating to divine Worship. III. To abolish the Custom of the Roman Catholicks and Reformed using the Churches by Turns, on Condition the Roman Catholicks have some of the Churches for the Exercise of their Religion. IV. To divide the Ecclesiastical Revenues in such Manner that every Clergyman of either Religion may have a Competency.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 29.

Madrid, May 8. Upon the pressing Instances of the Viceroy of Catalonia, the Court has newly remitted 50000 Pistols thither. for paying the Troops in that Principality, storing Magazines, and fortifying Barcelona. It being apprehended the Enemy's Fleet will make some Attempt upon the Coast of Catalonia, the People of which appear dispos'd to revolt upon the first fair Opportunity, the Court has found it convenient to desire more auxiliary Troops from France for the Security of that Principality; and we are inform'd that 6000 Men will be order'd thither from Provence and Languedoc. The King has made Don Joseph de Armendariez a Major of his Guards, and nominated him to command the Troops employ'd in the Blockade of Gibraltar. The Departure of the Galleons for the West-Indies is put off to December, upon Advice that the King of France cannot furnish Men of War before that Time to convey them. Monsieur du Casse is order'd to stay at Cadiz, to help to defend it in Case it be attack'd. Don Juan Murioz, Curate of the Palace, is nominated Bishop of the Canary Islands; and will speedily set out for Cadiz, to embark there with Don Augustin Robles, who is made Governour and Captain General of those Islands.

Falmouth, May 26. Yesterday 2 Dutch Privateers brought in the St. Clara of and for Rochel laden with with Iron and Wool from Bilboa. In their Cruize they took 4 other French Vessels with the like Lading, 2 of which they ransom'd, and the other 2 were retaken from them the 22d Instant by 3 French Men of War, the least carrying 50 Guns, that were cruizing off Ushant.

Plymouth, May 27. Yesterday sail'd her Majesty's Ships the Angelsea and Dolphin for Spithead. To Day came in from Falmouth, 3 Dutch Privateers with 13 Prizes, and 3 Doggers with Prize Goods, bound home.

London, May 31.

Yesterday, a Mail arriv'd from Lisbon, with Letters dated the 25th of May N. S. which confirm, that the Marquis das Minas has taken Salvaterra and Sarca, and made the Garrisons of both those Places Prisoners of War.

Fram the Camp at Valenza d' Alcantara, May 20. The 2d Instant we came before this Place: The 6th in the Morning we began to batter it, and continu'd so doing till the 8th, when it was taken by Assault in the following Manner.

First a Detachment of 200 English and Dutch Grenadiers, headed by Captain de Bourgay, advanc'd towards the Breach, being supported by two Portuguese Regiments of Foot, Colonel Duncanson's Regiment of English, and Count Noyell's of Dutch; they mounted the Breach boldly, but meeting with great Resistance the Grenadiers gave Ground, and the Portuguese having lost one of their Colonels, Don Francisco Nappo, were disorder'd, but Colonel Duncanson's Men advancing, bravely entred the Breach Colours flying, and tho' the same was undermin'd, the Enemy, who had hitherto defended themselves bravely, fled to the Castle, desiring to capitulate; but no Terms were granted them, so that they were forc'd to surrender at Discretion, (and are to be sent Prisoners of War to Lisbon) after which the Town was plunder'd and burnt. We have garrison'd this Place, and have summon'd the Peasants to fortifie it, and are now preparing to march to Alcantara, where the Marquis das Minas is to join us with 10 or 12000 Men.

The Town of Albuquerque, in the Province of Estremadura, is likewise taken by Capitulation: The chief Articles were, That the Inhabitants should not be molest'd, but be protect'd in the Rights and Privileges they enjoy'd at the Death of King Charles the Second: That one Gate should be delivered on the 20th of May to the Portuguese; and that an Inventory of the Magazines should be given to our Commissaries, the 21st. That the Garrison should march out at the Breach the 22d with Drums beating, Colours flying, Ball in Mouth, two pieces of Cannon, and be conducted to Merida: That all Prisoners should be exchange'd, and that sufficient Carriages and Horses should be provided them.

Sir John Leake is still at Lisbon with most of his Squadron, having sent out some Men of War to Cruize off Cape St. Vincent.

As the Packet-Boat was coming out of the River Tagus, on the 26th New Style, the Men of War, with the Transports and Forces from Ireland, were standing in.

Members chosen for the ensuing Parliament,

| | | |
|------------------|-------------|-------------------|
| Huntingdonshire, | Dryden, | Pocklington, Esq; |
| Shropshire, | Lloyd, Esq; | Sir Rich. Corbet, |
| Darbyshire, | Cook, | Curson, Esq; |

The Poll for the County of Cornwall was as follows.

| | |
|-------------------------|------|
| Mr. Boscawen, | 1405 |
| Sir Richard Vyvyan, Kt. | 838 |
| Mr. Bullar, | 806 |

In Tuesday's Courant, the 22d Line of the 3d Column, read sail'd to the Westward.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, to Day being Thursday the 31st of May, will be presented the last new Opera call'd Artinoe Queen of Cyprus. To which will be added a Farce call'd the Quacks, or Love's the Physician.

This Play is Sold by Richard Wellington at the Dolphin and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard. Where you may have most Novels.

Lost on the 29th Instant, between Bartlemew-square in Oldstreet, and the Pesthouse, a little Spinel Bitch, Liver-colour'd and white; whoever brings her to Mr. Hawleys, next door to the Frying-pan in Bartlemew-square; or to Mr. Strahans Bookseller, at the Golden Ball in Cornhill, overagainst the Royal Exchange, shall have Five Shillings Reward.

This Day at Tom's Coffee-house adjoining to Ludgate, will be sold by Auction, a Collection of curious Italian, French and other Prints, by the best Masters, beginning exactly at 6 in the Evening. Among the Prints are Titian's Emperors and Empresses by Sadler; Van Dicks Postures by P. Lombard; Edelink's Crucifix in 2 Sheets finely printed; 50 of Van Dijk's Heads of the first printing, and other choice Prints. Catalogues may be had at Oliver's Coffee-house at Westminster-hall Gate; at Squire's Coffee-house in Fuller's-Rents in Holbourn; at the Temple-Change Coffee-house in Fleetstreet, near Temple-bar, and at the place of Sale, where the Prints and Drawings may be view'd at any time of the day before the Sale begins.

Lately publish'd;

The Quacks: Or, Love's the Physician. As it was Acted (after being twice forbid) at the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane. By Mr. Swinny. Pr. 1s. Sold by B. Bragg in Ave-Mary-Lane.

The Right of Succession to the Crown and Sovereignty of Scotland argued. 1. A Description of Scotland. 2. The Original and Progress of the Kingdom there. 3. Present State of the same. 4. Several Competitors to the Succession. Of the Serene House of Hanover. 5. The Interest of the Kingdom, with respect to the Competitors, consider'd. 6. The Interest of England, as concerning that Succession, with a Proposition, how to determine it, without Arms or Expence.

Next Wednesday will be publish'd;

A Critical History of the Doctrines and Worship (both Good and Evil) of the Church, from Adam to our Saviour Jesus Christ; giving an Account of the Origin of all the Idolatries of the Ancient Pagans, as far as they relate to the Jewish Worship. Written in French by Mr. Peter Jurieu, and faithfully done into English. In two Volumes. Printed for J. Taylor at the Ship in St. Paul's Church-yard; and G. Sawbridge at the three Flower-de-luces in Little-Britain. 1705.

Newly publish'd

Familiar Letters, Written by the late Ingenious Mrs. Catherine Phillips, to the late Sir Charles Cottrell, under the Names of Orinda to Polyarchus; printed from their Originals, price 3s. 6. Bosman's New and Accurate Description of the Coasts of Guinea, divided into the Gold, the Slave, and the Ivory Coasts, price 6s. Both printed for Bernard Lintott at the middle Temple-Gate in Fleetstreet.

Presbyterian Loyalty in two Letters: One directed to Mr. Palmer, Author of the Vindication of the Loyalty, &c. of the Dissenters; the other to a Tacking Member of Parliament, giving some account of the History of Dissenters Loyalty, &c. Part I. In answer to Mr. Palmer's fifth Chapter of his vindication of the Dissenter's Behaviour towards Authority: In which there is some account of the Presbyterian Plot, of making James Duke of Monmouth King of England. By a Friend of the Tackers. Printed for Richard Wilkin at the King's-Head in St. Paul's Church-yard.

The only true Original Strops for setting Razors, Penknives, Lancets, &c. prepared and publish'd by the first Author that ever any were sold for in England, are only to be had at John's Coffee-house in Swiving's Alley near the Royal Exchange (as hath been often mention'd in the Gazette) price 1s. each, with Directions, neatly fix'd on Boards.

Dr. William Read, Her Majesty's Principal Oculist in Durham-Yard in the Strand, London, has lately Couch'd and brought to perfect Sight, several Persons of Quality and others, who were blind of Cataracts, which Operation he has perform'd upon many Hundreds with good Effect, and that without Pain or very little Confinement, as will be Attested by several Persons of Note. He likewise performs many Cures upon the Poor for Charity, of the most difficult Distempers incident to the Eyes, and has lately cured Richard Murry, Drummer in Colonel Ray's Company of the first Regiment of Foot Guards, of Blindness, occasion'd by an Obstruction of the Optick Nerves; and many more Seamen and Soldiers in Her Majesty's Service gratis, at his House, where He or his Brother are constantly to be Advis'd with.

The Antiquities of Palmyra, alias Tadmor, built by King Solomon, Containing the History of that City and its Emperor's from its Foundation to this present Time. With an Appendix of Critical Observations on the Names, Religion, and Government of the Country. Illustrated with a large View of the Ruins of the Place as it now is, and a Learned Commentary on the several Inscriptions and Coins lately found there. The Second Edition. Printed for S. Smith and B. Walford (Printers to the Royal Society) at the Princes Arms in St. Paul's Church-yard, In Octavo. Price 4s.

A Sermon preach'd at the Consecration of the Right Reverend Father in God, George Lord Bishop of St. David's, in Llanbeth-Chappel, on Sunday, April 29. 1705. By J. Waugh, Rector of St. Peter's, Cornhill, and Chaplain to the Right Honourable Francis Lord Guilford. Printed for A. and J. Churchill, at the Black-Swan in Patern-Noster-Row.

A View of the Cruelty and Ignorance of the Romish Church. In a Sermon preach'd on the Fifth of November 1704. being the Anniversary of the Gunpowder-Plot. As also of the happy Arrival of His late Majesty King William the Third. By Benj. Gaton Vicar of Stone, Bucks. Printed for Richard Wilkin at the King's Head in St. Paul's Church-yard.